QUARTER! QUARTER!!—Our Carrier desires to announce that he will be "bobbin' round" on New Year's morning with an Address touching up divers matters and things in and 'about' our city. He requests his friends to be particular in having their Quarters ready.

The affairs of Kansas are attracting considerable attention in Congress, and many members are already making speeches on the subject. This is all premature and unnecessary, and more likely to be productive of evil than good.

The republicans are joyfully chuckling at what they flatter themselves will be a split in the democratic party, and are lauding Douglass to the skies for his determination to carry out in its widest sense the doctrine of popular sovereignty, which they so bitterly opposed last year. We hope they do themselves, and that there will be no such split. There is no necessity for it. The difference is one of expediency merely, and not of principle. On the great principle of popular sovereignty the party is an unit; and while on more questions of policy they may entertain different views, there will be found no difference when the principle itself is involved, at least none but such as can be easily compromised and arranged.

The Washington Union of the 22d sensibly remarks, that up to that time there had been no practical question before Congress for its consideration in connection with the Kansas matter; nor had the knowledge of affairs in that Territory been so full and complete as to justify opinions to be expressed that may not be materially modified by subsequent information. When the constitution shall be presented, and the admission of Kansas as a State under it is demanded, the subject will be fully before Congress for its consideration and practical action. Then let its merits be candidly and fairly discussed, as it should be, and the action of Congress be taken upon due deliberation. We anticipate an end to the matter that shall dispose of it forever, and in a manner satisfactory to the whole country, except to those who seek to array one section of the country against the other in strife and discord.

Gen. Cass in his instructions to Gen. Denver, the new Acting Governor of Kansas, insists strongly on the necessity of preserving peace in that distressed region, and guaranteeing to every citizen the safe and unrestricted exercise of the right of suffrage, and authorizes the use of military force in case the civil power should be found insufficient. He also directs him to protect the territorial Legislature, and if it should authorize an election by the people, then such election should be equally protected with those authorized by the convention. Any attempts at organizing a revolutionary government or foreign interference with the elections authorized by the convention, or by the Legislature, are to be promptly put down. The whole instructions are judicious and show a determination on the part of the administration to preserve peace and order in Kansas, and protect its citizens in the exercise of their sovereign rights.

Mr. MASON, our Minister to France, has resigned. It is stated that the resignation is in some measure compulsory, and in response to a gentle intimation that it would be acceptable to the Administration.

Wisconsin Election.—We have at length got the official canvass of the entire vote of Wisconsin, and it appears, after all, that Cross, dem., is defeated, and Randall, rep., elected Governor by a majority of 451. The republicans have elected their Governor, Treasurer, and Prison Commissioner. The democrats elected the Lieutenant Governor, Sec. of State, Attorney General, Sheriff, Commissioner, and Bank Comptroller.

Minnesota Election.—Sibley, dem., is elected Governor, by a majority of 290. The total electoral vote is Sibley 17,932, Ramsey, republican, 17,642. The democrats have three majority in the Senate, and six in the House.

Bishop in Fort Wayne.—By the paragraph below it will be seen that we are about to have a Bishop of the Catholic Church located in Fort Wayne, and that the incumbent is a man of exalted character and talents. We congratulate our Catholic fellow citizens on having so worthy and deserving a man placed at the head of the church, and have no doubt but his residence and labor in our midst will do much for the improvement and prosperity of our city.

The Catholic Telegraph says:—

We congratulate the Catholics of Northern Indiana on the recent appointment of Right Rev. John Henry Purcell to the See of Fort Wayne. He brings to his exalted station talents, learning, experience, zeal. His knowledge of the English, German and French languages will peculiarly qualify him for the post for which he has been elected.

For the Holidays.—H. B. Reed has a fine assortment of Perfumery, Fancy Articles, &c., admirably adapted for Holiday Presents. Those wishing to make acceptable presents will find Reed's the place to get them.

The Right Way to Talk.—The democrats of Lawrence Co. in this state, at a convention held on the 12th inst. passed a series of strong democratic resolutions, and among them the following, which we fully endorse:

Resolved, That we have nothing to do with those called "Wright and Bright" controversy; that while we honor and respect both those distinguished statesmen, the Democracy of Lawrence County will not degenerate into a faction. We are neither "Wright men" nor "Bright men," in a factitious sense, but National Democrats, holding the success of Democratic principles paramount to all considerations of adherence to particular individuals.

This is the right kind of talk. The democrats of Fayette Co. adopted a similar resolution, as follows:

Resolved, That the Democratic principle is a principle of universal brotherhood, and that we from down to every at tempt to create a division of our party, by arraying ourselves as Bright or Wright men, but that as Democrats all and all go in for the true principles of Democracy—measures, not men; but these measures must be Democratic.

Dr. POMRONT, the universal Indian Botanic Physician, will be in Fort Wayne, at the Rockhill House, on Friday, December 25th, and remain three days.

In Defense, at the Carey House, on Tuesday, December 29th, and remain three days.

A joint resolution was introduced by Mr. Taylor, of New York, and passed for paying the arrears of debts to the members of the Senate, and the amount of the same to be paid in the commencement, instead of the end of this session.

Adjourned.

S. M. PETTENGILL & Co.—The New York Advertising Agency.—We learn that the business of this enterprising house in the advertising line throughout the United States and Canada, has been far from a limited one the past year, notwithstanding the great increase of expenditure among the merchants of the country. We have been informed that the New York city contracts alone with Pettengill & Co. for general advertisements during the past twelve months, will amount to the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, a proof that New Yorkers, after all, are not frightened at the apathy of buyers, and though there may be periods of dullness, it is no reason that a man must take his sign down and close his shutters; the motto has been, "Keep up your business notices" Confidence in this particular agency, the firm and the sale of goods, which governs their settlements with newspapers on one hand, and their suggestions of those papers which will be most advantageous for their advertising patrons on the other, may be one explanation of the present high rate of Pettengill & Co. in the line they are at all events, those who have occasion to put the services of this agency in requisition, will find them prompt, honorable and responsible.—N.Y. Day Book.

If Messrs. Pettengill & Co. have acted as our agents in New York for several years, and we have always found them prompt and honorable in their dealings. We are pleased to notice the success they meet with, and cheerfully endorse all the Day Books in their praise.

Circuit Court of the U. S.—After five weeks of laborious session, Judge Huntington, with the consent of the court, took a recess until after the holidays. Court will meet again on the 4th of January and proceed with the docket. This has been one of the heaviest terms ever held in the State. Many important cases have already been disposed of, and several remain to be tried. Among the most important was the case of Nathaniel B. Hogg vs. Benjamin Rutherford. This case was argued at Cincinnati, in vacation, at Chambers, before Judges McLean and Livingston, the plaintiff, Mr. O. H. Smith, and W. Z. Hart, of Indiana, the defendant.

On motion of Mr. Seward, a resolution was adopted, directing the Joint Committee on Privileges to inquire and report whether any new provision of law is necessary to secure the faithful performance of existing contracts, which provide for the publication of annual reports of the condition of the various states of Congress.

The Senate then resolved the consideration of the President's annual message.

Mr. Fitch said if that an election took place in Kansas yesterday Congressional action upon the subject would soon be required, that is, assuming that there were no frauds which would nullify the election.

On motion of Mr. Slidell, requesting the President to communicate the record of the proceedings of the several Naval Courts of Inquiry held in this city.

S. M. PETTENGILL & CO.—THE NEW YORK ADVERTISING AGENCY.—We learn that the business of this enterprising house in the advertising line throughout the United States and Canada, has been far from a limited one the past year, notwithstanding the general reduction of this line of expenditure among the merchants of the country. Confidence in this particular agency, the character of the men composing the firm, and the rule of promptness which governs their settlements with newspapers on the one hand, and their sagacious choice of those papers which will be most advantageous for the advertising patrons on the other, may be one explanation of the present high reputation of Pettengill & Co in the line they are in at all events, those who have occasion to put the services of this agency in requisition, will find them prompt, honorable and responsible.—N.Y. This case was argued at Cincinnati, in vacation, at Chambers, before Judges McLean and Huntington, vs. Messrs. Buck, Ingham and Hunter of Ohio, the plaintiff, and by Mr. O. H. Smith and W. A. Stewart of Indiana, for the defendant. It was a bill filed on a mortgage for $38,000. The defense set up was, that the amount due the plaintiff was $20,000, and that the other notes of $18,000 were for deferred payment, and were usurious and atrocity. The Court sustained the defense, and struck off the usury. Decree accordingly, plaintiff paying costs.

WASHINGTON, December 17.—The following named Senators compose the committee to which was referred that part of the President's Message relative to the Railroad to the Pacific: Messrs. Gwin of California, Douglas of Illinois, Bright of Indiana, Davis of Mississippi, Hunter of Virginia, Scott of New York, Bell of Tennessee, Peleg of Vermont and Iverson of Georgia.

In executive session to day, the Senate confirmed the appointment of M. B. Lamar, of Texas, as Minister to Central America, and Austin R. Smith as Naval Agent in California.

The nomination of Judge Clifford, war warmly debated by the Senate, and then referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Senators Douglas' bill introduced in the Senate to provide for a board of five persons, appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate, to make an enumeration of the inhabitants and a fair apportionment of members of convention, and an election held on a day designated by the board, not less than ninety nor more than one hundred and twenty days from the passage of this Act, and who shall be intrusted with the appointment of Judges and places of voting, which is confined to every free white male citizen of the United States over twenty one years of age, who may be a free state inhabitant of the Territory on the 21st day of December, and who shall have resided three months, next to said election, in the county in which he offers his election. The convention to assemble not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after the election of delegates; the constitution to be submitted to the legal voters for their free acceptance or rejection; and unless adopted by a majority of all the legal voters cast, it shall be null and void.

The bill secures personal and political rights to the people, including those of speech and the press.

WASHINGTON, Dec 18.

SENATE.—Mr. Douglas introduced a bill to authorize the people of Kansas to form a constitution and State government, preparatory to their admission into the Union, upon an equal footing with the original States.

The resolutions submitted yesterday by Messrs. Pugh and Trumbull, calling on the President for further information in reference to Kansas affairs was agreed to.

The Senate then resumed the consideration of the Treasury note Bill.

Mr. Hunter, while explaining the provisions of the bill, said that although the crisis in commercial trades was perhaps past, yet there would not be a general revival of trade before the last of April or the first of May. Before that time the money now proposed to be raised would be used.

Mr. Clingman said that the prices now paid for stationery are the same as heretofore, there must be a great mistake somewhere. He had found it so inferior as to be obliged to buy some at the book stores. He had seen a statement in the Globes of a serious character, and which, if true, implicated the late Clark, Mr. Cullom, in embezzlement.

Stage-Attacked by Wolves.—The bears having monopolized much attention lately, the wolves claim notice. On Wednesday night last, Mrs. Mitchell was driving a mail mud wagon on the back Calais Route from Bedington to the next stopping place, twenty miles from this city, being without passengers, his team was beset by a pack of wolves. They were about a dozen in number and came on fierce and noisy. Mitchell however, drove up smart, which he had no difficulty in doing, as the horses were as much frightened as himself. As they pressed hard upon him and glared their eyes, and gnashed their teeth about him, he let go the contours of a rifle, which laid out one of the hungry crew, and for the time, checked their pursuit. This was providentially near the stopping place, upon arriving at which, the driver is said to have been pretty well overcome with excitement and fright. Wolves and bears are very plenty on the back route and very audacious.—Bangor Union, December 5.

Extensive Amount of Space.—At the time the injunction was served on the Saco Bank, Maine, says the Bangor Whig, they had safely stowed away in their vaults, in specie, the enormous sum of four dollars and seventeen cents! by the help of the Cashier, the Bank Commissioners were able to count it accurately in less than three hours. We understand that short-sightedness and fourpence constituted the bulk of the cash on hand.

Another commentary upon the blessed institutions which periodically cover our land with bankruptcy and distress. We are a great people—create banks by unconstitutional legislation, allow them to print unconstitutional debts, to circulate them as money, and receive interest on what they owe. When called upon to pay, they suspend; the legislative sanctions their most flagrant violations of law. We are a great people—a wise people—a most wonderful people!—Cin. L.

Court-martial of Colonel Summer.—It will be recalled that Colonel F. V. Summer of the First Cavalry, has recently been on trial at a general Court-martial held at Fort Leavenworth. Although the judgment of the Court has not yet been officially promulgated, yet we learn from a reliable source that he has been suspended from rank and pay for the period of four months, and to be reprimanded by the General in Chief. We also understand that the Commanding General (Scott) has confirmed the sentence of the Court, but has remitted the penalty. The charges on which Colonel Summer was tried were preferred by Major George Deas, Assistant Adjutant General. In this connection we will state there is a rumor that in the trial of this case a difficulty arose, the precise nature of which we are not yet advised, between Colonel Summer and General Harney, the former objecting to the latter's sitting as President of the Court; and it is hinted that Colonel Summer will, in consequence, meet charges against Major Deas and General Harney.—St. Louis Republic.

Frauds in Philadelphia.—The frauds developed in the investigation of the transactions of the Philadelphia Board of Health, the testimonies in the papers of all at city, completely threw in the shade, everything of a similar character heretofore brought to light. The report of the Committee of the City Council charges that the public treasury has been wronged out of large sums of money by the action of the Board; that large sums have been offered and paid; that warrants have been drawn in the name of firms who never had any dealings with the Board; and that the Board has expended the city funds in robbing an endeavor to cover this misappropriation of the public money by fictitious accounts. In one case over eleven thousand dollars ought to have been paid for work which ought to have cost but about nine hundred.

The Plunder of Delhi.—A private letter from Delhi dated Sept. 27, says:

For description of the riches of Delhi my pen is inadequate. Cashmere shawls, inlaid with gold, bodies covered with gold lace, skirts and dresses, watches, bars of gold, beds of silk and down, such as no nobleman's sons in England could produce, you would say. S. L. has carried out of Delhi the first day, as if they were almost nothing. A shawl which, in England, would fetch £100, they were selling for four rupees and you may depend, our fellows were not behind them. * * * It is supposed the rifles will go to England. Wilson has issued an order that the prices shall be all put together and divided. Most of our men are worth upwards of 100 rupees.

American Missionaries Killed in India.—The private letters from India, brought by the American alliance to the Sepoy massacre of several Christian Missionaries in Upper India—the following among others:

Rev. J. F. Fessenden, Futterer, Am. Pr. Miss. Rev. D. E. Campbell, Am. Pr. Miss. Rev. W. C. Johnson, Am. Pr. Miss. Rev. R. Macmillan, Am. Pr. Miss. Rev. T. Macmillan, Am. Pr. Miss. Rev.

The mission property destroyed at twenty six stations throughout Hindostan is estimated by this writer at $70,000.

Of this heavy loss by far the greater portion fall upon the English Church Missionary Society and the American Presbyterian Mission. The former loses $22,000, and the latter $26,000.

Marriage of Lola Montez.—The Philadelphia Press, at the conclusion of a very complimentary notice of a lecture by Lola Montez, says:

We have to state, with much gratification, that this is the close of Madame Lola Montez's career as a public lecturer. We break no confidence, and do not intrude on the secrets of private life, by mentioning that this fair and gifted woman is on the eve of a very brilliant marriage and alliance. She purposes, in ten days from this time to be en route for Paris. Her return to this country, for a short time, may be expected in the spring. And so we take leave of her as a lecturer, and with due gallantry wish her all imaginable happiness in this approaching new chapter of her eventful life.

Steamboat Burned.—The steamship Col. Edwards was burned on Red River on Saturday morning. Her cargo, consisting of over 1000 bales of cotton and many head of cattle, is a total loss. Fifteen or twenty persons perished.

An End to Kissing.—A short while since the affectionate public was astonished by the story of a young lady whose neck was dislocated in consequence of the ill-advised resistance which she offered to the amicable salute of an admirer so fond and so dear. Our fair exchanges from Europe have matched this tale with another of an import held at Leeds on the body of a young man of 21, who fell down stairs and killed himself in the course of an attempt to scratch a kiss from the unwilling lips of a girl of fifteen. Some of our contemporaries deduced from the first of these occurrences the wholesome moral that young ladies should never oppose the advances of their admirers. In common fairness we are now bound, no infer from the second accident that no man should ever attempt to kiss a fair maid when it is offered to him. Between the two lessons there is reason to fear that an ancient and not altogether disagreeable custom may be summarily abolished.—N Y Times.

The Hartford Press says that the Rev. L. Ludington, of New Britain, who formerly preached in the "Advent Church," in that village, has been sentenced to twenty days' confinement in the county jail for breaking the windows of the church maliciously, and in the night season. It is said he was offended, because another clergyman had been invited to preach in the church. Ludington was seen to smash in all the windows in one side of it, and then go home.

A Dutchman's Reason for Marrying.—During the three weeks of the present month, ending on Saturday the 11th, the License Clerk of the Probate Court, Wm. M. Burgoine Esq., issued 155 marriage licenses. During the corresponding three weeks last year, 188 licenses were granted—32 less this year than last during the same period. Hard times will affect matrimonial arrangements, as well as every other social relation in life. While we were in the Probate Clerk's office Saturday afternoon, a stout, hearty Dutchman applied for a license. He said he wanted a "shock" to get married with. A friend who happened to be present, asked his reason for wishing to get married in such hard times, when he replied, "I plenty time now—nothing to do. Soon I have work—can't get to mine wife. Plenty time now—so I gets married." And paying his dollar, drawn from a well tied hot bag, he departed with his license to occupy his leisure hours in getting married and attending to his wife.—*Cin. Fort Wayne Sentinel.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1857.

Editor's Note.—Our Carrier desires to inform that he will be "holding round" on New York's coming with an Address touching up divers matters and things in and about our city. He expects his friends to be plentiful in bidding their Quakers ready.

The affairs of Kansas are attracting considerable attention in Congress, and many members are already making speeches on the subject. This is all premature and unnecessary and merely to be productive of evil and good.

The republicans are joyfully chalking at what they themselves will be a split in the democratic party, and are leading Douglas into the line for his determination to carry out in his widest sense the doctrine of popular sovereignty, which they so bitterly opposed last year. We hope they do not themselves, and that they will not do so. There is no necessity for it. The difference is one of expediency merely and not principle. On the great principle of popular sovereignty, the party is an unit; and when more questions of policy they may encounter, there will be found differences when the principle itself is involved, at least in so far as can be easily comprehended and arranged.

The Washington Union of the 24th sensibly remarks that up to that time there had been no practical parties in Congress for its consideration in connection with the Kansas matter, nor had the knowledge of affairs in that Territory so full and complete as to justify opinions to be expressed that may not be materially modified by subsequent information. When the constitution shall be presented, and the admission of Kansas as a State under it demanded, the subject will be fully before Congress for its consideration and practical action. Then let us work to be candidly and fairly discussed, as it should be, and the action of Congress be taken upon the matter that shall dispose of it forever, and in a manner satisfactory to the whole country, except to those who seek to arra one section of the country against the other in strife and discord.

Gen. Cass in his instructions to Gen. Donisthorpe, the new Acting Governor of Kansas, insists strongly on the necessity of preserving peace in that disturbed region, and guaranteeing to every citizen the safe and unobstructed exercise of the right of suffrage, and authorizing the use of military force in case the civil power should be found insufficient. He also directs him to protect the territorial legislature, and if it should annull or overturn by the people, then such election should be equitably protected with those authorized by the Legislature. Any attempts at organizing a revolutionary government or forcible interference with the election authorized by the convention or by the Legislature, are to be promptly put down. The whole instructions are just, honest, and show a determination on the part of the administration to preserve peace and order in Kansas, and protect its citizens in the exercise of their sovereign rights.

Mr. Mason, our Minister to France, has resigned. It is stated that the resignation is to come measure compulsory, and in response to a gentle induction that it would be acceptable to the administration.

Wisconsin Election.—We have at length got the official canvass of the early vote of Wisconsin, and it appears, after all that Cross, don, is defeated, and Randall, rep. elected Governor by a majority of 431. The republicans have elected their Governor, Treasurer, and Prison Commissioner. The democrats elected the Lieutenant Governor, Sec. of State, Attorney General, School Commissioner, and Bank Comptroller.

Minnesota Election.—Sibley don, is elected Governor, by a majority of 250. The total official vote is 15,632. Ramsey, republican, 12,412. The democrats have three majority in the Senate, and six in the House.

Bishop in Fort Wayne.—By the paragraph below it will be seen that we are about to have a Bishop of the Catholic Church located in Fort Wayne, and that the incumbent is a man of exalted character and talents. We congratulate our Catholic fellow citizens on having so worthy and deserving a man placed at the head of their church, and have no doubt but his residence and talents in our midst will do much for the improvement and prosperity of our city.

The Catholic Telegraph says:—

We congratulate the Catholics of Northern Indiana on the auspicious appointment of Right Rev. John Henry Luers to the See of Fort Wayne. The new bishop has been many years the beloved Pastor of St. Joseph's church, Cincinnati. He brings to his exalted station talents, learning, experience, zeal. His knowledge of the English, German and French languages will probably qualify him for the past for which he has been selected.

For the Hot-Shop.—H. B. Reed has a fine assortment of Perfumery, Fancy Articles &c. admirably adopted for holiday presents. These wishing to make acceptable presents will find Reed's the place to get them cheap.

The Right Way to Talk.—The democrats of Lawrence Co. in this state, at a convention held on the 12th inst., passed a series of strong democratic resolutions, and among them the following, which we fully endorse:

Resolved. That we have nothing to do with the so-called Wright and Bright controversy; that while we honor and respect both these distinguished statesmen, the Democracy of Lawrence county will not degenerate into it. That we are neither Wright men nor Bright men, in a factional sense, but National Democrats, holding the success of Democratic principles paramount to all considerations of adherence to particular individuals.

This is the right kind of talk. The democrats of Fayette Co. passed a similar resolution, as follows:

Resolved. That the Democratic principle is a principle of universal brotherhood, and that we will do every thing to encourage as Bright or Wright men, but that as Democrats each and a party for the true principles of Democracy—increases, not men, but these measures must be Democratic.

At present, the universal Indian Botany Physician will be in Fort Wayne, at the Rockwell Hotel, on Friday, December 29th, and remain three days.

Dr. Penruddick will show any person above ten thousand dollars his patients within one thousand miles, to any person who will call on him. His audience are all drawn from the Vegetable Kingdom, and will grapple with all disease in the known world. He does not make sick to make well, nor bear down to build up. These taking his medicines can pursue their regular course of business while the work of cleaning and purifying the system is going on. Dr. Penruddick has particular attention to female disease of all kinds. He will permanently cure either in any system without the aid of medicine. He will entirely cure pain from any person, by the aid of Psychology, free from charge to any person who may call on him.

Dr. Penruddick will be at his Botanic Dispensary, two blocks west of the Post Office, Adrian, Michigan, on January 4th, and remain until January 18th.

S. M. PETERSON & CO.—The New York Advertising Agency.—We learn that the business of this enterprising house in the advertising line throughout the whole of America has been far from a limited one the past year, notwithstanding the general reduction of the rates of expenditure among the merchants of the country. We have been informed that the New York city agency alone with Pennington & Co. for general advertisements during the past twelve months will amount to the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year, a sum which is far above the average of the advertising business of the country.
